

As an parent, one of your most important tasks is to teach young children the important skill of how to make good choices. Why? Because it is by our choices that each of us 'create' our lives.

Here's a unique way to learn how to do just that.

It 'sets the stage' by learning the colors of everyone's personalities and continues with learning how to be respectful of them when making choices.

Each of our customized Successful True Colors Parenting workshops include

THESE FEATURES:

- A Intro overview and keynote closure
- A True Colors Assessment of all attendees.
- A unique way to 'picturize' upcoming choices.
- Learning how to combine what is natural with what is necessary when making a choice.
- Each attendee receives a compass and map to refer to when going through life's intersections (choicepoints).
One-on-one coaching available upon request.

THESE BENEFITS:

- More harmony and respect in your family.
- Acceptance vs criticism of various personalities types.
- Knowledge of a fair way to make and measure choices and decisions (similar to 'A,B,C,D, & F' measurements for academic behavior) that can be used by all ages, creeds, cultures, and communities.
- Use of an easy method for making choices that can be used by your child in all aspects of his/her life i.e. school, work, friends that fosters respect for all.

Between thinking about doing anything and actually doing it is when we create our lives-by our choices. Also, consider replacing "For every action, there is a reaction" with "For every action, you have a choice of how to react".

To learn how to appreciate and respect the colorful personalities in your family and also how to make wise and loving choices So as to not have this at home..... But rather have a family like these, call...
