

Ever felt puzzled, doubtful, and indecisive when you need to make a decision?

Generally, it's hard to make the right choice or decisions quickly and easily.

Yet, successful people make choices constantly in an effortless manner.

What's their secret?

The secret to their success comes from using a proven process that you, too, can use!

If you want to begin enjoying that same ease in making choices and decisions, call today to learn how you can use it for your success.

In our 20/20 Foresight workshops, you will learn how ROI is really ROC, Return on Choices.

Who Are These Workshops For?

These workshops are designed for the following three groups:

- Leaders and executives in business and government.
- Mid-level managers and educators at all levels.
- Front-line and customer service positions.

What Are The Benefits?

In business, an increase in:

- Trust in management and leadership.
- Job productivity and employee retention.
- Bottom-line profit or ROI a.k.a. ROC, Return on Choices.

In one's personal life:

- Improved health and self-confidence.
- Better relationships at home and work.

What Is In The Workshops?

- Learning to 'picturize' a situation when making a choice.
- Learning how to organize all relevant info surrounding a choice.
- Having a way that everyone regardless of age or rank can refer to.

Why Focus On Choices?

- In workplaces, schools, communities, and even homes, it may be challenging to understand one another due to:
  - Various ages and levels of job responsibilities.
  - Ethnic backgrounds, cultural, and religious variances.

What's Unique About Them?

- Easy to Understand - Combines what's natural and necessary.
- Easy to Infuse into existing curriculum or procedures.
- Easy to Remember - Linked to daily activities. Attendees receive tangible items to use as reminders of core components.
- Easy to Refer To - Core components can be used by everyone.

How Are They Taught?

- Full-day seminars.
- Half-day workshops.
- A series of four 90-minute evening classes (for parents).
